

Chamber Liaison Benefits

Moody Area Chamber of Commerce

As front-runners in the business community, Chamber Liaisons find their volunteer experience rewarding because of the opportunity to celebrate business growth in the Moody area, support the Chamber with their time and expand their business potential through networking and relationship building. During your tenure as a Chamber Liaison, you will experience the following return on your investment:

- Name recognition and visibility for your business and yourself through numerous networking opportunities
- Leadership and volunteer opportunities within the Chamber and community
- Knowledge of and involvement in upcoming events in the community
- The opportunity to build lasting and rewarding relationships with Chamber members and other Chamber Liaison Members as well as Chamber Staff
- The opportunity to participate in many business, civic, and community events and projects
- Opportunities to interact with new businesses in the Moody area
- Greater opportunity for direct input to the Chamber
- Exclusive opportunities and priority invitations to community activities and events
- Award Recognition (eligible for Chamber Liaison of the Year Award which is recognized at the January Chamber Luncheon)
- Increased visual business exposure
- Increased top of mind awareness for you and your business
- Written recognition through e-blast publications and other Chamber publicity
- Lasting business relationships and friendships
